1. The activity must provide recreational or cultural service to the community.

2. The sponsoring organization must be based on Gabriola Island.

3. The sponsoring organization must be not-for-profit or must donate any profits to a community venture deemed worthy by the Gabriola Recreation Society.

4. Money granted by the Gabriola Recreation Society must be used for a specific project and cannot be used for an organization's ongoing activities or for payment of salaries for on-going employees (this does not include honorariums).

   . Start-up costs

   are eligible for support.

Guidelines for Judging Applications

Applicants should address the following criteria in their request for Grants in Aid. While all of the information is not essential for submitting an application, the answers will be used to judge the projects worthiness for support.

1. Beneficiaries: Who will benefit? How many Gabriolans' will work on the program? How many will benefit directly? How many will benefit indirectly?

2. Ability to carry out the project: Applicants must demonstrate that they can complete the project, submit a time-line and an accurate, justifiable and well-researched budget and provide their most recent financial statement (if applicable).
